

Handwritten mark

THE WASHINGTON POST
Saturday, April 26, 1962
A 7

Peking Vows U.S. Accounting for Blood Debts

PEKING, April 27—The Chinese Communist Party newspaper, the People's Daily, today said that "together with the other people of Asia and the rest of the world the U.S. aggressors will eventually settle accounts for their blood debts." It was committed to the task of "200th serious warning" issued by the Chinese Foreign Ministry to the United States yesterday for alleged intrusions by its planes and warships into China's territorial waters.

The newspaper said that since mid-1958 U.S. ships have intruded into China's territorial waters 144 times and U.S. planes have intruded into Chinese air space 161 times. It also accused Chinese Nationalist pilots of having flown over the mainland coast of the China.

The newspaper said that the United States was "preparing to rekindle the flames of war" and that at the same time it was "preparing to throw its military forces to an ever increasing extent directly into the world."

The newspaper quoted Gen. George H. Decker, Chief of Staff of the U.S. Army, as saying that the United States was expanding its "special war" capability to wage "special war" in the critical areas of which it considers necessary for itself.

The newspaper also quoted Gen. Decker as saying that the United States was "preparing to spread or may develop" a local war in the southern part of Viet-Nam, inspired subversion, insurg-ency or guerrilla warfare exists in South Viet-Nam.

The newspaper said that the U.S. is "preparing to spread or may develop" a local war in the southern part of Viet-Nam, inspired subversion, insurg-ency or guerrilla warfare exists in South Viet-Nam.